

INAUGURATION AWAITS COURT ACT

THANKSGIVING
TURKEY BRINGS IN COLD CASH

Western North Dakota Farmers
Sell 300 Per Cent More Than Last Year

10,000 ARE SHIPPED OUT
Turkeys From This Section To Tackle Palates of Many
2,000 Miles Away

A big, fat turkey is worth more to a farmer than a calf nowadays. Many farmers living in the vicinity of Garrison found when selling poultry for shipment to eastern and Pacific coast markets that they could get about $3 for a fat turkey and not much more for a calf after paying freight. For the last year there has been a big increase in the amount of poultry prepared for shipment in western North Dakota. Carl Nelson, of the Northern Produce company, doesn't complain of bad business—he said today his company had handled 300 per cent more poultry from western North Dakota this year than last. The situation results, he said, from the fact that farmers and farmers' wives have found the raising of turkeys, chickens, geese and ducks highly profitable.

10,000 Turkeys Shipped
Improvements in the manner of preparation of poultry from this section also has had its effect. North Dakota dressed chickens and turkeys will be found on Thanksgiving tables in Los Angeles, Tacoma, Seattle, New York, Chicago and other large centers. Within the last year—though many people have not known of it—there has been a wonderful increase in the raising of poultry. There have been 10,000 western North Dakota turkeys shipped to the eastern and coast markets for Thanksgiving. There will be fully as many Christmas. While the bulk of the produce goes out of this section there is plenty of turkey for Thanksgiving in Bismarck and other towns in this section.

Means Money to Farmers
Some days ago a buyer for the local firm visited Garrison. In two days over $4,000 was put into pockets of McLean county farmers and farmers' wives. A total of 15,800 pounds of produce was bought and sold. There will be fully as much disposed of by farmers before Christmas.

The amount was twice as much as the Northern Produce company had ever purchased from that section of McLean county. Mr. Nelson estimates that not more than 50 per cent of the produce, at the most, has been sold by farmers.

Western North Dakota is becoming known in the big eastern markets as one of the best producing poultry markets in the country from a standpoint of quality, with the quantity steadily increasing.

MRS. J. J. HILL
PASSED AWAY

Widow of Railroad Magnate III
For Long Time

St. Paul, Nov. 22.—Mrs. James J. Hill, widow of the late James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern railroad, died at her home here today, following a long illness.

She was 75 years old and had been in failing health since the death of her husband in May, 1916. She will be buried beside her husband on the Hill estate, North Dakota, at the St. Paul Cathedral Friday morning, according to present plans.

Mrs. Hill is survived by six daughters and three sons.

Mrs. Hill had been seriously ill for two months from a heart attack. All her close relatives were here at the time of her death except her eldest daughter, Mrs. Samuel Hill, who is an invalid. Funeral services will be held at the St. Paul Cathedral Friday morning, according to present plans.

NORTH DAKOTA
SAILOR SHOWS
HIGH COURAGE

Washington, Nov. 22.—A North Dakotan, Theodore A. Bolster, with two other men, has been commended by the Secretary of the Navy for initiative courage and a high sense of duty displayed on the destroyer Jacob Jones while on full power and smoke prevention run.

Bolster is from Parshall, North Dakota. On September 9 the blower and exhaust lines from one of the boilers' safety valves was carried away. Chief John F. McLaughlin, of Topeka, Kansas, who was in charge of the ship, immediately ordered it secured, closing the master oil valves and blower valves himself. He was assisted by Bolster and another sailor from Arkansas, preventing further damage and casualties.

DOG CATCHES TROUT.
Ashford, Eng., Nov. 22.—A rough-coated terrier, on a farm near here, has developed a faculty for catching fish. Recently, the dog had a two-pound trout in its claws.

ONE KISS FOCH DIDN'T GET!

Christy Luella Kissling, five, refused a kiss from Marshal Foch—yes—the world's most noted general, after she had presented him with flowers at Chicago. Here she is dashing away as Foch stoops to kiss her!

LEGIONAIRES TO PROVIDE MARSHAL
FOCH WITH GAME FOR WESTERN TRIP

Marshal Foch will have the opportunity of eating North Dakota game on his trip to the Pacific coast—provided the American Legion hunters succeed in bagging it.

The Bismarck post of the Legion plans to present the Marshal with a dozen or two wild ducks and geese when he is here next Sunday and the Mandan post of the Legion proposes to present him with a deer. Marshal Foch has tabooed public dinners as much as possible on his trip, and carries his own French chef.

Every American Legion post in the state has been notified of Marshal Foch's visit to the North Dakota department of the Legion and most of the posts are expected to be represented here. The local post was continuing its preparations today for the entertainment of the distinguished warrior here next Sunday.

It is possible that among those who will greet the Marshal here will be some Indian chiefs from Ft. Yates or Ft. Berthold.

Teams representing the Rotary, Town Criers and Commercial clubs will go out tomorrow afternoon to solicit funds to be used in decorating the city Sunday.

PROBING INTO
"FATTY'S" PAST

Watchman At Culver City
Studio Testifies

San Francisco, Nov. 22.—Further testimony by Jesse Norgard, former motion picture studio watchman, was first on the program today in the state's effort to convict Roscoe C. Arbuckle of manslaughter in connection with the death of Virginia Rappe, film actress.

Norgard worked at the Culver City studios where Miss Rappe and Arbuckle were employed in August, 1918. He said Arbuckle offered him $50 for a key to Miss Rappe's room. He declined the offer, he said.

Zeh Prevost and Alvin Blake, on the stand yesterday, described the Hotel St. Francis party which they attended at which Arbuckle is alleged to have fatally hurt the actress. Both said Miss Rappe moaned "I am dying, he hurt me." Neither, however, would say that she mentioned Arbuckle's name.

LEITH SCHOOL
BURNED DOWN

$15,000 Loss Caused By Fire
From Overheated Furnace

(Special to the Tribune.)
Leith, N. D., Nov. 22.—The consolidated school burned here last night, with loss estimated at $15,000. Fire originated from an overheated furnace.

The lack of fire protection made the building an easy prey to flames. Volunteers threw buckets of water on the flames to no avail. The building was well covered by insurance. It was a frame building.

School is splendid, with arrangements being made for a suitable building.

RIOTS RESULT
IN 5 DEATHS

Bogota, N. M., Nov. 22.—Five persons were killed and 17 wounded in a battle between cavalrymen and a force of bandits and strikers in the Punta Lara territory of Santa Cruz according to dispatches received by the ministers of the interior today.

The troops took 150 prisoners. Recent estimate shows that more than 150,000 persons in the world speak English.

NEW DIPLOMACY IS WITNESSED
IN ARMS MEET

Delegates State Their Views
With an Unprecedented Directness and Frankness

ALL READY TO REDUCE

Limitation of Armament is Held
Certain as Result of First
Ten Days

Washington, Nov. 22.—(By the Associated Press)—Opinions have been exchanged among the arms delegates with such unprecedented directness that with the conference only 10 days old some of the experienced diplomats here believe they can see almost with precision what it will and what it will not be possible to accomplish. Following the example of the American delegation in laying down a sweeping naval reduction proposal at the opening session the representatives of the other powers have put aside almost without exception the diplomatic indirection that usually betters such negotiations and have revealed the picture of the future that language is given to diplomats to conceal their thoughts.

With the respective heads of the American, British and Japanese delegations working in direct personal conference almost daily on the naval reduction plan there are indications that an agreement on all but details is near at hand. In the same way the readiness of all the nations to commit themselves to general principles relating to the Far East and the outspoken objection of Japan to discussing details of that situation seem to have quickened a conviction that adoption of a set of principles like the four agreed upon yesterday will be the outcome of the Far Eastern end of the negotiations.

France's firm stand in addition to the whole question of land armament appears to have been pretty well settled by the frank presentation of the case France delivered in yesterday's plenary session by Premier Briand. The French spokesman made it at once apparent that definite readjustment of land forces would be impossible in the view of France because of the existing conditions which she believes threatens her and the whole world.

"YOUR STATE IS WORST" SOLONS
LOUDLY SHOUT

Remarks of Penrose and Heflin
Are Stricken From Senatorial Record

Washington, Nov. 22.—Disorder marked the beginning today of the senate consideration of the conference report on the tax bill, the climax being reached in the unusual procedure of expunging senatorial remarks from the record.

The words stricken out were contained in a verbal clash between Senators Penrose, Republican, Pennsylvania, and Heflin, Democrat, Alabama, in which Mr. Penrose referred to the "black darkness of the state" represented by Mr. Heflin and the Alabama senator characterized Mr. Penrose's state as "manipulated by predatory interests."

AMERICANS IN MEXICO HELD

Washington, Nov. 22.—Four Americans were captured last yesterday by Mexican bandits at Santa Eulalia, 22 miles from Chihuahua, the state department was advised today. After being held for ransom the party was released at the end of a four-hour period when no ransom was forthcoming.

RAILROADS BATTLE WITH SNOW AND ICE IN WASHINGTON AND OREGON

Portland, Ore., Nov. 22.—Railroads battled today with snow and ice which had tied up several trains in Oregon and Washington. A squad equipped with snowshoes was sent overland from South Junction, Ore., to carry provisions to a stalled Oregon Trunk line train near Maupin, Oregon. After this train had become tied up Saturday night relief engines were dispatched from Bend and Fallbridge but their efforts to reach the stranded train were fruitless. Train No. 3 of the Spokane, Portland and Seattle is snowbound near Cooks, Washington.

Two other trains were reported held up at Fallbridge but suitable provisions for the care of the passengers were to be had at the hotel there.

GOVERNOR-ELECT NESTOS ARRIVES
HERE TO TAKE EXECUTIVE CHAIR;
TO PLEDGE KEEPING OF PROMISES

Many Independents Come Here For Expected Inauguration At 3 O'clock Wednesday Although Uncertainty Keeps Many
From Starting—Few Appointments Already Made

Inauguration ceremonies scheduled for 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the house of representatives chamber of the state capitol awaited the word "go" from the official starter of the new administration, the supreme court. If the court grants the temporary restraining order against the state canvassing board prayed for the inauguration will be held up. Independents confidently expected the ceremonies would continue.

Uncertainty of the situation caused a great deal of long-distance telephone business today from persons who wanted to come for the ceremonies but hesitated to start.

County auditors have all certified returns of the recall election to the Secretary of State. Return from the last county was received Monday afternoon. The canvassing board is called to meet at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning and is expected to complete its session by noon.

Governor-elect Rangvald A. Nestos came to Bismarck last night, upon request of some independent state officials. He had not intended to come here until today at least, but was asked to advance his time of coming so as to dispose of numerous matters. Mr. Nestos spent the day resting and greeting callers. After the hard campaign he was busily engaged in closing up his personal affairs before coming to Bismarck, and has not had the opportunity for a vacation.

VACANCY IN LOCAL OFFICE
JANUARY 24

Notice Received Fixing Retirement of Postmaster Reed of Bismarck

TO HOLD EXAMINATION

General Rush of Candidates Expected to Follow Government's Announcement

According to a notice received in Bismarck today from the Civil Service commission, a vacancy will occur in the local postoffice Jan. 24, 1922. Postmaster Reed's term expires on that date. He has been ill in the hospital for several months and there has been considerable speculation as to the successor. Assistant Postmaster Lundquist has been in charge during Mr. Reed's illness.

The postoffice pays a salary of $3,700 and the examination to fill this office is not an examination under the rules and regulations of the Civil Service Act. It may be filled by the transfer or promotion of someone in the competitive classified service. The order under which the Bismarck postoffice appointment will be made is as follows:

Executive Order

"When a vacancy exists or hereafter occurs in the position of postmaster at an office of the first, second, or third class, if such vacancy is not filled by nomination of some persons within the competitive classified Civil Service who have the required qualifications, then the Postmaster General shall certify the fact to the Civil Service Commission, which shall forthwith hold an open competitive examination to test the fitness of applicants to fill such vacancy, and when such examination has been held and the papers in connection therewith have been rated, the said Commission shall certify the results thereof to the Postmaster General, who shall submit to the President the name of one of the highest three qualified eligibles for appointment to fill such vacancy unless it is established that the character or residence of any such applicant disqualifies him for appointment. Provided, That at the expiration of the term of any person appointed to such position through examination before the Civil Service Commission, the Postmaster General may, in his discretion, submit the name of such person to the President for reappointment without further examination."

"No person who has passed his sixty-fifth birthday, or who has not actually resided within the delivery of such office for two years next preceding the date of examination, shall be given the examination herein provided for."

"If, under this order, it is desired to make nomination for any office of a person in the competitive classified service, such person must first be found by the Civil Service Commission to meet the minimum requirements for the office."

General Fitness for Job

Candidates will not be required to report at any place, but will be required according to education, training, business experience and fitness.

The order actually fixing the date of the retirement of Postmaster Reed is expected to precipitate the contest for the office. A number of names have been mentioned for the position but nothing of a definite nature has been done formally to file applications with the postoffice department.

Applications must be made promptly to the Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C., or at the postoffice in the city where the vacancy occurs. No one under 20 years of age or more than 65 is eligible.

There are nearly 12 miles from the highest mountain peak to the greatest known ocean depth.

ELECTION SUIT
IS CONSIDERED
BY HIGH COURT

Petition Is Presented on Behalf of Nonpartisan League
Taxpayers Here

TOO LATE — ROBINSON

Justice Says That Action Should Have Been Brought Before the Election

Hopes of Nonpartisan league taxpayers to avert the inauguration of R. A. Nestos tomorrow were somewhat dimmed late yesterday when Justice Robinson, of the supreme court, emphatically took them to task for not having presented their case of alleged fraud before election.

The supreme court, however, after hearing S. E. Ellsworth and Edward Sinker took the matter under advisement and Mr. Ellsworth was asked to submit today additional authorities on the matter.

The explanation for the delay was given to the court. Mr. Ellsworth said that it was impossible to have completed all the checking before election and that the extent of the alleged fraud was not anticipated.

While the Nonpartisan league wide-spread independent frauds, Theodore Nelson, secretary of the Independent Voters' Association, alleged wide-spread "mistakes" upon the part of persons who copied the names off the recall petitions.

His declaration a cursory examination showed many names had been erroneously copied and therefore could not be identified, leading to statements that persons signed petitions who did not exist. Mr. Nelson's statements were, of course, made out of court, and he refused to believe that the independents would be into court.

Hold Immediate Hearing
After the presentation of the petition to the supreme court late yesterday the court decided on an immediate hearing, which was held in the senate chamber after it was found the house chamber, usually occupied by the court, was too cold. A large number of spectators were in the courtroom.

Some remarks were made by Judge Robinson and others. Justice Robinson declared that it was never intended that the Secretary of State or the Governor should go out and make the investigation of the petitions but that it was the duty of the interested parties, and criticised delay upon the part of the petitioners.

Justice Christianson pointed out that in most states trying experiments such as the recall, had found it necessary to provide safeguards, and that in South Dakota it is required that the petition be subscribed in affidavit form.

Replies to Justice
Judge Ellsworth replied to the remarks of Justice Robinson declaring "there is no such thing as estoppel on the people of the state in a case like this."

He suggested a referee could be named to investigate the petitions and Edward Sinker told the court that in his judgment, "there never has been so much fraud as in this matter."

Justice Robinson had declared that the petitioners were wrong in their interpretation of the recall that it required 30 per cent of those who voted for Governor at the last election. Mr. Sinker declared this proposition could be disregarded and still there was not a legal name.

The affidavit of George Laird, head of the taxpayers committee which instituted the election suit, said that from an investigation it was ascertained "that more than five thousand persons have signed their names twice upon said petitions and that if said persons themselves same were forged" and that "more than ten thousand persons have signed the recall petitions who did not vote for Governor at the general election in 1920" and "that more than 1,000 persons have signed the said petitions who were not citizens of the state."

Names of Dead Persons
He further alleged that "on the said petitions appear the names of a large number of persons who had been dead for a long time prior to their signatures were purported to have been affixed" and "that those who circulated the said petitions knew that the said names of such dead men were affixed."

He alleged that "the original petitions show on their face that the names of as many as 20 names have been signed by the same individual and in the same handwriting."

During the discussion before the court, Justice Robinson emphatically declared that it was entirely legal for persons who did not vote for Governor in 1920 to sign the petition, and said that because the action was brought after election there is a question as to whether these parties have any standing in court at all.

CLOTHES SHOP WILL OPERATE WITH NEW NAME

Rosen's Clothing Shop Will Be Known as the Men's Clothes Shop in Future

REASONS FOR CHANGE

Rosen's Clothing Shop, located in the McKenzie hotel building for the past ten years, owned and operated by Al and Charles Rosen, has changed the style of the firm name to The Men's Clothes Shop. The business will be still located and conducted in the present location in the McKenzie hotel building.

The chief reason to prompt this hustling clothing enterprise to change the style name, is for the reason that in the past few years there have been other Rosens who have come to Bismarck and have operated under this name in the clothing business.

"Our customers and the public have labored under the impression that these other stores were operated by us and that their owners were either relatives or in some manner connected in business with us," said Al Rosen. "We want it distinctly understood that we are the original Rosen Clothing store in the state of North Dakota and at Bismarck and we are not in any way connected in business with any other person or persons by this name in this state. We came to Bismarck first and as we were then the only Rosens we decided to style our clothing business as Rosen's Clothing Shop, but today there are others of similar names which confuses the trade and that is why we have deemed it necessary to change the style name of our up-to-date and first-class clothing store to The Men's Clothes Shop.

"We desire to inform the public that by changing the style name of our business it is not going to interrupt in the least with the quality of merchandise that we have carried for years. We will still maintain the same personal and courteous attention as we have always done in the past."

"Al Rosen and Charles Rosen, together with Mr. Payne will be pleased at all times to give the best that is within their power.

"On the back page of this issue there is an advertisement under the new firm name, The Men's Clothes Shop, and as to quality of merchandise and prices, we have exerted every effort to attract a great sale for the sole benefit of our customers and friends, which we trust they will take advantage of," concluded Mr. Rosen.

ROOT PROPOSAL UPON CHINA IS GIVEN APPROVAL

Armament Conference Declares
For Territorial Integrity of Empire

SEEN AS FORWARD STEP

(By the Associated Press.)
Washington, Nov. 22.—A resolution declaring for the territorial administrative integrity of China was adopted unanimously late yesterday by the conference committee on Pacific and Far Eastern questions.

The resolution, the first concrete action of the conference committee, was drafted and presented by Elihu Root, one of the American delegates.

Signed by Eight Powers.
An agreement embodying the resolutions was signed by eight powers. China refrained from attaching her signature. It was said, because she could not very well pass upon a document expressing a policy concerning herself.

Adoption of the resolution followed two hours of discussion of Chinese problems at today's meeting of the delegates of the nine powers in committee of the whole on Pacific and Far Eastern questions. The discussion was said to have been general and participated in by spokesmen for all the principal nations represented.

The Root resolution, it was learned, was one of the principal subjects of discussion yesterday at the meeting of the four American delegates. The declaration in the Root resolution for administrative integrity of China was declared by the delegates to be very significant and important. While there have been declarations in the past for territorial integrity for China such declarations, it was said, never before have gone to the extent of declaring for administrative integrity.

The Root resolution was said to have been the principal topic at the committee meeting. Long Step Forward, China.
One of the delegates declared with reference to the agreement that "a long step had been taken toward formulation of the Far East questions."

"The firm intention" of the eight signatory powers, it was asserted, was "to respect the sovereignty, independence and the territorial integrity of China."

The further intention "to provide the fullest and most unembarrassed opportunity to China" to develop an effective and stable government was asserted. The purpose of the pact was declared, was to use their influence in "establishing and maintaining the principle of equal opportunity for the commerce and industry of all nations throughout the territory of China."

A pledge was made "to refrain from taking advantage of the present condition" in China to seek special privileges which might abridge rights of friendly nations, and also to refrain from "countenancing action inimical to the security of certain states."

ART COLLECTIONS GIVEN TO PARIS

American Philanthropist Is The
Donor—Gives Money Too

Paris, Nov. 22.—The deed of gift by which the city of Paris becomes possessor of the art collections of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tuck, with 1,000,000 francs for their installation in the Petit Palais, Champs Elysees, has just been signed. Mr. Tuck is an American philanthropist who has long lived in Paris.

These collections include tapestries, tapestried furniture, tapestried pictures, china, Sevres, old Saxony porcelain, Battersea enamels, watches and several articles connected with Benjamin Franklin.

Of the tapestries, the principal piece is "Psyche led by Zephyrus into the Palace of Love" and "The Flying Dutchman" by the artist, showing her riches to her sisters, manufactured at Beauvais, after design by Roubaix, and formerly in possession of the Dukes of Marlborough at Blenheim.

Among the furniture is a sedan chair, of unusual model, painted by Jean Bérain, which was made for Madame de Chartres, niece of Louis XIV.

The pictures include some rare primitives, "La Belle Jardinière" by Boucher and two Fragonards.

Benjamin Franklin is represented by his portrait by Greuze, another portrait attributed to Duplessis, a plaster statue by Caffieri, probably a model made by the king's order for copying by the Sevres porcelain manufactory, a terra-cotta bust by Houdon (1778), a portrait in wax by Madame Tussaud, and several terra-cotta medallions by J. B. Niki.

Edward Tuck is a retired banker, born in Exeter, N. H., 1842, who graduated at Dartmouth in 1862, where later he founded the Tuck school by a donation of $400,000. He was United States vice consul at Paris in 1886. He built the American hospital in Paris and with his wife, Julia Stell, has been a great benefactor to the town of Reuil, close by which he lives and to which he has given a hospital and public park.

He has made many gifts to Malmson, former residence of Napoleon, which is just outside the gates of Paris. Tuck's country home, Malmson, died and a house of the same name all the

Mae Marsh Appears In Hit of Season

The Marsh, the popular theatrical actress, took her audience by storm last night at the Rex theater where she appeared in the stellar role of "The Little 'Brave' Lady," a Robertson-Gale super-sensational picture. Miss Marsh has been absent from the silver screen for some time, and has been devoting her energies to playing the most wonderful role in the world—that of a mother. The audience last night was just as there always have been. Notwithstanding the fact she has always occupied a most enviable spot in the calendar of stardom, Miss Marsh never before appeared to better advantage. John C. Adolf, who directed "The Little 'Brave' Lady," was to be congratulated for his excellent work. Altogether, the picture is a smashing hit.

In the cast with Miss Marsh are: Tully Marshall, Kathleen Kirkham, Charles Meredith, Herbert K. Brown, Gretchen Hartman, and George B. Thompson, Jr. Also Jacques Hill, a wonderful actor, and the wife of the "The Little 'Brave' Lady" and a winner.

You Can Make This

You'll like so much the idea of keeping perfumed hair while you are about during the morning hours. So with a length of ribbon and a lot of lace and the set you love best make a lace-ribbon band to hold your curls becoming and before the real cord is made.

A cord of ribbon, getting, taking the color of your hair into consideration when you buy, two yards of lace and a strip of daisy and two yards of baby ribbon are the requirements.

Brush the hair on either side of the ribbon for a length which goes to within about four inches surrounding the head. Then stitch the daisy, double the ribbon on the back, leaving one end open in which to slip a generous supply of sachet. That done, with a contrasting or harmonizing shade of embroidery thread quilt the lace and daisy, being careful to keep your stitches uniform.

At each end knot a little of baby ribbon with pointed, uneven ends.

COTTON.
The cotton thread is in all kinds of colors. It can be used in all kinds of work. It can be used in all kinds of work. It can be used in all kinds of work.

INTERNATIONAL GRAIN-HAY SHOW NOV. 26 TO DEC. 3

Promises To Beat All Records
At Chicago—Expect 6,000
Sample on Exhibit

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Grain men in all districts have been cooperating with the directors of the International Grain and Hay Show and as a result when the gates swing open on Nov. 26 and continue to Dec. 3, the most successful exposition of its kind ever held will be under way.

It is believed that the number of samples on exhibit this year will approach the 400 mark, and that some of the latest specimens of grain, seed and forage developed will be brought out in the competition.

"The importance of the show," said George S. Brinke, of the special board of trade committee, "lies in its benefit to producers and all others desiring better crops."

"The show," said Prof. G. J. Christie, Purdue University, superintendent of the exhibit, "has demonstrated its tremendous value in the encouragement of better agriculture and better country life. It means increased yields, less waste and greater productivity."

One of the new features of this year's show is a Junior Corn Contest which will be participated in by several hundred boys. At least 2,000 of these boys will attend the exposition. There will be a thousand ten-cent pieces of corn will form a part of the exhibit. Premiums are offered for single and ten-cent corn of each of white and yellow corn for exhibits of wheat, oats, barley, rye, soybeans, cowpeas and field peas, and for samples of seed and hay, including red, white and sweet clover, alfalfa and timothy.

The exhibit of the United States department of agriculture, which covered 200,000 square feet last year, will be even larger this year, and many of the exhibits of agricultural colleges and crop associations have likewise been expanded.

FOCH HAILED AS HE LEAVES ON LONG TRIP

Marshal to Swing Around Coun- try Before Returning to France in December

New York, Nov. 22.—New York bade Marshal Foch an revoir Sunday night, sending him off on a swing about the continent that will not end until December 13, when he returns to this city, to sail the next day for France.

The itinerary announced for him by the American Legion, his hosts on the American visit, indicated that the generalissimo will travel more than 12,000 miles and visit 23 states and Canada in the 23 days allotted to the tour.

The trip will take him to the Pacific coast by way of the northwest and back again to Washington by a southerly route, thence into Canada and back to New York through New England.

The marshal left Sunday for Washington, whence the swing will be started in real earnest Tuesday night. He ended his visit to New York at a public reception Sunday night in the Hippodrome. The big theater was packed.

When the cheers had died away, a chorus of 1,000 voices, launched into the stirring strains of the "Marseillaise"—Foch and his allies in their box standing at stiff salute, the audience in their places standing at attention.

Hanford MacNider, national commander of the American Legion, presented Foch to the crowd.

The marshal responded briefly in French.

Last Day of Visit.

The marshal began the last day of his visit here by motoring to St. Patrick's cathedral for ten o'clock mass. At the conclusion of the mass, the party then drove to Fordham university, where he received his fifteenth honorary degree of doctor of laws.

In the afternoon, he attended a reception at the Army and Navy club, where he met officers and ex-officers of the United States military forces. Driving on, then, to the Plaza hotel for the dinner tendered him by the French societies of New York.

The itinerary of Marshal Foch's tour of the United States and Canada which starts at Washington Tuesday, was announced here by the American Legion as follows:

November 22, Washington; Nov. 23, Richmond, Va.; Nov. 24, Harrisburg, Pa.; Nov. 25, Mason City, Iowa, via Chicago, then to Minneapolis, arriving at 8:30 P. ## Young Girls Need Care

FROM the age of twelve a girl needs all the care the thoughtful mother can give. Many a woman has suffered years of pain and misery—the victim of thoughtlessness or ignorance of the mother who should have guided her during this time.

If she complains of headaches, pains in the back and lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter make life easier for her.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted for such conditions. It can be taken in safety by any woman, young or old.

Guttenberg, N. J.—"My daughter was all run down and had fainting spells often, had a bad complexion, and suffered at her monthly periods. Her grandmother had been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for the Change of Life, and got a bottle of it for her. She began to improve with the first bottle and took five in all and was entirely restored to health. For a time she had not been able to attend school, but she does now. She recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to her friends and I give you permission to publish this letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. CATHERINE McGLOVE, 304 24th St., Guttenberg, N. J.

Roxbury, Mass.—"My daughter is a schoolgirl and she suffered very much with irregular periods, painful cramps and dizzy headaches. She was sometimes as long as three months between her periods and when they came she was not able to do her school home lessons because she could not even sit up. A copy of one of your little books was left in my letter-box and she began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for her troubles. She is now in good health, is regular and can help me with the housework when not in school."—Mrs. VICTORIA G. SPRESSERT, 74 Bragdon St., Roxbury, Mass.

The appointment of Mrs. F. R. Smyth of the city as chairman of the State Women's Committee in North Dakota for the Woodrow Wilson Foundation, was announced in New York today by Miss Virginia Potter, chairman of the national women's committee, which is working with Franklin D. Unusual Athletic Record Is Made by Junior Student Extracts from an article in the Boston Globe will be of interest to many Bismarck and Menoken people.

"Frank A. Farrington, 16, of 38 Bangor street, is one of the most promising athletes at the Cony High school, and a young man of remarkable prowess. He is the son of Hon. Frank G. Farrington, state senator and ex-speaker of the Maine House of Representatives, and himself an athlete of some renown in his old Bowdoin College days. Young Farrington, a junior, is one of the best all round athletes in the history of the school. If he makes his letter in tennis, which he promises to do, he will become a five letter man, something yet unknown at the school."

Mr. Farrington specializes in the golf field in baseball, forward on the basketball team, right halfback on the football team and in the track sports he specializes as a sprinter, broad jumper, discus thrower and shotputter. He is one of the best ranked students in the school. "If he keeps up the same pace he has now set he will win the athletic bowl" of Bowdoin College, to which institution he is now headed."

Mr. Farrington's mother will be remembered here as Blanche French, a graduate of the Bismarck high school in the class of 1918. He is also a nephew of John P. French of the city.

LEGION MEETING TOMORROW

An invitation has been extended to the Women's Auxiliary to meet with

CLOTHES! AN INTERVIEW WITH MARY (ASSISTED BY DOUG!)

BY MILTON BRONNER.

Paris, Nov. 21—With the help of Doug, I've just interviewed Mary on clothes.

Doug? Fairbanks, of course. And Mary? Pickford, to be sure.

When I found them, in the royal suite at the Hotel Crillon here, Mary was wearing a becoming Paris creation of blue silk velvet, trimmed with coral beads. A hat of the same material made an effective frame for her golden curls.

But, speaking of clothes—

"Here I am in the paradise of shops and I haven't even bought as much as a handkerchief!" she said.

"(Mary?) interjected friend husband."

"Well, only the dress I bought today. You see, when we arrived I had nothing to wear suitable for the climate."

"(I never know a woman who had anything to wear?) interrupted Doug."

"It's mighty nice to have so many people interested in a person because of one's success in her chosen art. But really I can't shop when half of Paris wants to go along and watch me do it. The result is that I have seen about ten thousand dollars worth of things I'd like, but only in the store windows as our auto went past."

"(And the auto didn't stop?) from Doug."

"I'd like to run around Paris alone," continued "Our Mary," and had delightful bargains in frilly things and ducky houses and other things that women like to shop for. And after I'd bought clothes, I'd like to browse around the jewelry shops in the Rue de la Paix—"

"(Where you pay and pay and pay?) commented Doug."

Mary quit then, and turned to a discussion of American women and others.

The American Legion on Wednesday evening, November 23rd Judge Christianson of the supreme court will deliver an address, which promises to be very interesting.

In addition to the above feature, important business will be transacted and arrangements made for the program next Sunday when Marshal Foch will be the guest of the city.

This is the first union meeting with the Legion and it is urged that all members be present.

ATTENDING MEETING

City superintendent of school J. M. Martin, Miss Hazel Neilson, Miss Bertha Sigurdson, Dr. Melvin R. Gilmore, E. McCurdy, Henry Hanson, Mrs. Walter Stratton, Mrs. H. W. Griffith, C. L. Poberston, state high school inspector of Bismarck, and Miss Elizabeth Pope of Bismarck, are attending the annual meeting of the North Dakota Teachers association being held at Fargo.

HOLD UNION SERVICES

Union Thanksgiving services will be held under the auspices of the Bismarck Ministerial Association at the Evangelical church on Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Rev. E. F. Alfson, president of the Ministerial Association, will preside. A program for this evening in charge of the pastors of the several churches will be arranged and announced.

FOR DAUGHTER

If daughter has a way of growing out of her petticoats before they are at all worn, instead of sewing the shoulders together leave them open and lapping quite a bit when they are buttoned. By setting the buttons nearer the edges the petticoats can easily be made longer.

MOTHER! OPEN

CHILD'S BOWELS WITH CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP

Your little one will love the "fruity taste of California Fig Syrup" even if crisscrossed bilious irritability or full of cold. A teaspoonful never fails to cleanse the system and bowels in a few hours. You can see for yourself how thoroughly it works by the sour bile and undigested food out of the bowels and you have a well playful child again.

Millions of mothers, say "California Fig Syrup" hands. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

OUR MARY

"There is little essential difference between the well-dressed women of New York, London and Paris," she said. "Each country has its own type of pretty women. Good clothes are perhaps more universal in America than in Europe, because here class lines are still maintained and it is mainly the wealthy who buy fine clothes. In America, you can't judge a woman's wealth by the clothes she wears. For they all love to dress, and will make many sacrifices to gain the admiration of others on the street."

VISITING FRIENDS HERE

Miss Viola Skinner and Miss Winifred Flinn of Wilton, are visiting friends in Bismarck.

Scout Notes

Troop No. 2.

N. M. Dunn and William Noggle were made assistant scoutmasters of this troop last Friday at the regular meeting.

Carl Danrot took the merit badge or Personal Health. It was the only test taken during the week.

Scout meeting Thursday night instead of Friday night of this week.

Troop Six.

We are making arrangements for a basket ball to be owned by the troop so that there will be no more difficulty along that line.

Plans for a food sale to be given Saturday at Brown & Jones Grocery "QSS" are going forward in fine shape. Our mothers are furnishing us with pies, cakes, nut bread and other things (which we hate to see leave home).

We are unanimous on the cabin and have the location about picked, but have not as yet been able to make satisfactory arrangements for the building.

"Bus" Driver and Norris Scouts are our first two First Class Scouts, but others are coming fast.

Dance at Baker's Hall every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights. 10c a dance. Best music in the state.

COOKING LESSONS The Right Way to Make Cake

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

Cake is divided into two classes, cake with butter and cake without. Aside from this all cake recipes are very much the same. The proportions and combinations vary making a cake light, fluffy moist, dry solid or spongey.

Careful baking is as important as careful mixing. A steady, even heat must be kept. If the oven bakes too fast on the bottom put a pan of water directly under the cake.

Plain Sponge Cake

Four eggs, 1 cup sugar, 1 cup flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1-8 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons water, 1 teaspoon vinegar, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Break eggs, separating the whites from the yolks. Beat yolks and water until thick and lemon colored, using a Dover beater. Beat in the sugar gradually. The mixture should be smooth and creamy.

Add baking powder and salt to flour and sift six times. Add this to first mixture, beaten first with the beater and finishing with a spoon. Beat in vinegar and vanilla.

Beat whites of eggs till stiff and dry. The success of the cake depends greatly on the whiteness of the whites. Fold the whites into the first mixture and pour into a cake pan with a chimney (bake 4) minutes in a moderate oven.

A sponge cake is "done" when it shrinks from the sides of the pan. Remove from the oven and turn upside down on a cake rack. It should drop from the pan in a few minutes.

This rule for sponge cake was worked out for bread flour.

Plain Butter Cake

One-half cup butter, 1 cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1-2 cup milk, 2-2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1-8 cups flour, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1-8 teaspoon salt.

Fill measuring cup half full of water and put in enough butter to make the water rise to the top of the cup. Pour out water and put butter in mixing bowl. Work butter with wooden spoon and pour off any buttermilk or water that works out.

Gradually sift in sugar until you have a creamy mass. Then sift in about one-fourth cup of the flour. This will prevent the mixture from separating when the eggs are added.

Beat eggs well with a Dover beater and beat into first mixture.

Mix and sift flour, baking powder and salt. Add part of this to the first mixture, stirring the whole to make a perfectly smooth mass. Stir in part of the milk, making the mixture perfectly smooth. Add dry and liquid ingredients, alternating until all are used. Mix thoroughly.

Four into an oiled and floured cake pan or two layer cake pans and bake in a moderate oven. It should take the layers about 20 minutes to bake and the loaf about 30 or 40 minutes. Never grease a cake pan with butter.

The salt in the butter scorches quickly and has a strong taste. Olive oil or sweet lard is best.

When a loaf cake must be baked very slowly the pan should be lined with a paraffine paper.

Granulated sugar should be used for all cakes unless otherwise stated in the recipe. Half butter and half lard used in a dark cake makes a tender cake.

All ingredients should be ready to be put in the cake at their appointed time without letting the cake mixture stand. This preparedness is

ARE YOU A MOTHER?

Here is Some Good Advice for Every Woman

Minneapolis, Minn. "Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription" is an excellent tonic for a woman to take during expectant motherhood. I took it and was in far better health and much stronger than I ever had been during any of my previous expectant periods.

Both of my "Favorite Prescription" babies were extremely healthy and I recovered my strength very quickly afterward. I think so well of the "Prescription" that I would take it again should I need it, for it has given me so much comfort. — Mrs. Walter Milner, 2112 Milwaukee Ave.

one secret of successful cake baking

Regulating the heat in the oven is perhaps the hardest part about cake baking. A reliable oven thermometer eliminates guesswork but an old-fashioned test that has proven itself is trying the oven with a piece of white paper.

If the paper turns a deep yellow in five minutes the oven is right for layer cakes. If the paper turns a pale yellow in five minutes the oven is right for sponge cake.

A cake may be warm or cold to frost if a cooked frosting is used. An uncooked frosting should be spread on a warm cake.

DRESS THE CABBAGE UP!

Here Are the Ways For It

BY SISTER MARY

Cabbage is a plebeian vegetable that can be made to rival the aristocratic cauliflower or brussels sprouts if it is carefully cooked and served.

If cooked in an uncovered kettle the unpleasant pungency of its odor will not be noticed.

Creamed cabbage is a delicate dish as creamed cauliflower and much less expensive. And cabbage is richer in minerals than either sprouts or cauliflower.

Creamed Cabbage

One medium-sized head cabbage, 3 green peppers, 1-2 cups white sauce, 2 tablespoons grated cheese, 3 teaspoons salt, 1-4 teaspoon soda, coarse bread crumbs, butter.

Remove wilted outside leaves of cabbage and put in rapidly boiling water to which salt and soda have been added. Boil eight minutes.

Drain and put in freshly boiling water and boil rapidly for twenty-five minutes. Drain, remove core and chop. Put a layer of cabbage in a well-buttered baking dish. Add a few shreds of pepper which have been parboiled for five minutes, sprinkle with cheese, salt and pepper and pour over white sauce to moisten. Continue alternating layers of cabbage and white sauce until all is used. Cover the top with coarse bread crumbs, dot with bits of butter and bake in a hot oven for twenty-five minutes.

Stuffed Cabbage

One large head cabbage, 1 cup cooked rice, 1 cup cooked left-over meat, 2 teaspoons minced parsley, salt and pepper, 1 cup brown sauce.

Remove any wilted leaves and thoroughly wash the cabbage. Put into a kettle of rapidly boiling water to which two teaspoons of salt have been added and cook for fifteen minutes. Drain and put in freshly boiling water for twenty-five minutes. Mix rice meat and parsley, season with salt and pepper and enough milk to moisten. Drain cabbage and pull open the leaves. Put meat mixture in each space. Put in a well-buttered baking dish, cover with buttered paper and bake in a moderate oven for half an hour, basting frequently with hot water and bacon fat. Serve with brown sauce.

Brown Sauce

One tablespoon butter, 1-2 tablespoon bacon fat, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 small carrot, 1 small onion, 1 tomato, salt and pepper, 1 cup water.

Melt butter and bacon fat. Add sliced carrot, onion and tomato. Stir in the flour and cook until brown. Add water gradually, stirring constantly. Let cook eight minutes and rub through a sieve.

APPROACHING PERIL
Biologists are expressing alarm about "how the United States is going to feed itself when its population reaches 1,000,000,000." That, according to Prof. E. M. East, may come "within the span of life of the grandchildren of persons now living."

The peril is world-wide.
Population of the earth now is about 1,700,000,000, and increasing about 16,000,000 a year. One American to 16 others.
Van Buren Thorne, medical scientist, writes a book, "The Control of Life." In it, he gives these figures on total population of Europe:

1800	187,000,000
1850	266,000,000
1900	400,000,000

At that rate of increase, it would seem to be only a matter of time until Europe will be so thickly populated that every one will have to stand up when he sleeps, no room to lie down.

The wave of alarm about rapidly increasing population, that now is vibrating through the scientific world, would please old Malthus, English economist who died in 1834.

Malthus set loose a theory (the Malthusian Doctrine), that population at all times tends to outrun subsistence. In other words, that people multiply faster than they can be fed, and that families and wars are necessary to keep population within bounds.

England, however, reports that she has more people than in 1914, despite the big death toll of the war.

Famines and wars kill many, but the tendency is for population to increase yearly. That must be a stickler for the people who believe that all of us are reincarnated, that we have lived before on earth. Since population is bigger now than in the past, where was the excess living 200 years ago?

Population does not increase faster than the ability to derive a living from the soil.

Europe's big increase from 1800 to 1900 was taken care of by the machine age—mass production. Similar advancement will always be the case. Texas, according to agricultural experts, could be made to grow enough to feed all the people now living on earth.

Steadily we are getting more and more out of an acre. If the population becomes perilously large, all food will be grown in hothouses, future Luther Burbanks showing our descendants how to raise and harvest a wheat crop in a few weeks or even days.

PASSING THE BUCK
If you want to rise to the top in your business or line of work, you must have the quality of accepting responsibility instead of evading it.
The man with a tendency to "pass the buck" usually finds that his ladder of success has only one rung.

Business will stand for almost anything from a man if he has the courage to say, "Yes, that's my fault. But I won't make the mistake again."
Such a man stands out, like a shotgun at a disarmament conference, among the millions who continually are evading responsibility—passing the blame to other people or to existing conditions.

The evasion of responsibility seems to be an almost universal human failing.
Savages people the earth with evil spirits to blame things on.

The Chinese for thousands of years blamed their famines on the gods of rain, flood sun and insect pests. All this was nothing but self-hypnotism—the rearing of imaginary devils on whose shoulders blame was piled. Along came American engineers. They discovered water a few feet under the surface.

"Behold!" they said to the Chinese. "The famine is your own fault. Sink shallow water wells, irrigate your fields and famine will end."

Today we have civilized America, caught in the simple economic law of cause and effect, blaming imaginary nothings for existing conditions.

Experts delve into the past, find that prices and production in previous years moved up and down like waves. Hence, they reason, we are not to blame for conditions, we are just caught up and carried along by a natural process.
"We have cynics, converted to the philosophy that there has to be a war in Europe every half century.

We have psychiatrists, blaming the unsettled mental and moral state of the world on intangible, imaginary things like "the cosmic urge," the "wave of social hysteria," etc.

These gentlemen attract wide followings, for the world is always on the eager lookout for anything new, on which it can shoulder the blame, instead of people accepting the truth and taking their own medicine.

This is the truth: That we are masters of our own destinies—that man is responsible for many troubles.

ICE
In Switzerland, following the unusually hot summer, Alpine glaciers are giving up their dead. The body of a guide, lost in an ice crevasse 18 years ago, is recovered. Searchers hope to find Lord Frederick Douglas, who was swallowed by the glaciers in 1865.

His body would be well preserved when found. Ice beats embalming. A mammoth, buried in Siberian ice thousands of years, was dug out a few years ago and eaten by natives.

What were men like, 50,000 years ago? You could find out if you could get to the bottom of ice in the Far North. Glacial tombs are older than the Pyramids.

MANAGERS
The people of Lowell, Mass., vote down the commission form of government, which they had tried out for 12 years. "Too expensive," was the popular verdict. A new city charter is voted in, placing undivided responsibility upon the mayor.
The mayor system, however, has been tried out for many generations in America. Critics contend that it is the most wretched institution of our government.

The city manager plan, properly handled, is the ideal way to run a city efficiently and economically. About 240 cities have adopted it. Like all good new ideas, it spreads slowly.

JOBLESS
In New York City 330,360 men and women are entirely unemployed, says a city report. That is 30 out of each 100 workers.
The majority of them probably are people who migrated into our country and never got beyond Manhattan.

Unemployment may prove to be a blessing. It will, if it moves that great army of metropolitan jobless westward to the farms where they belong, where they'd be happier.

A wise providence has a motive behind everything, even hard times. Bank on that.

IRONS
Quinine is the latest interest of Hugo Stinnes, financial genius of Germany. He builds many quinine factories in Hayti.

Stinnes' activities now extend into hundreds of fields. If he keeps on, he will be like Alexander the Great—no more worlds to conquer.

The ancient who coined the warning against having too many irons in the fire might be called up on the ouija board to discuss Stinnes. His answer would be, delegation of authority.

ADVENTURE
While women crave for coats, men crave adventure. How would you like to get into the Adventurer's Club of Chicago? To gain membership, J. K. Christian, real estate dealer, begged his way 3023 miles in automobiles in 27 days. Also he wins a bet.

Passing autos gave this man a lift of 100 miles a day, daily for nearly four weeks. Street car riders will wonder how long he had to stand on the curb before he was picked up.

EDITORIAL REVIEW
Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

PUTTERING WITH POLITICS
Some new light on woman's special genius for politics has just been shed by Katherine Haviland Taylor, the novelist. Women, she says, will be a strong force for good in politics because by nature they are all putterers.

By puttering this woman writer means to indicate a persistent absorption of the petty details of a subject. She illustrates by an influx of red ants in the kitchen pantry. The average man could never quell a plague of ants. If the pests did not yield to a half-hour of riot and oburgation, man would build a city or move to his club. Woman, on the other hand, will nag, harass and chevy the invaders two or three hours a day until the sanctity of the pantry is again inviolate.

Where man sputters, women putters. In politics she will see that the lid is nailed down on the pork barrel, will keep the boys out of the jam closet, will check up on the municipal bills. By this definition puttering acquires a new dignity, which points conclusively to an era of low taxes and economical administration as soon as woman gets her hand in at municipal housekeeping.

Of course, there is no reason why man should not also putter with politics. Not that his sputtering is wasted. It is a well known fact that the louder man sputters, the harder woman putters, so between the two politics seems due for an effective housecleaning.—Chicago News.

MONEY MAD

(Florence Borner.)
Stop for one moment! Stop it, I pray,
What is this race you are running today?
Crowding each other in business and mart,
Thinking of pocket instead of the heart.
Where are you going, oh, whither, I pray?
What destination do you seek today?
Plunging along at such reckless speed,
Danger, destruction, you've no time to heed.
Forward, still forward, oh, what is your goal?
What the temptation that urges your soul?
Some glittering bauble that dazzles the eye,
This is the thing you so dearly would buy.
Pushing, and crowding you're rushing along,
Adding one more to the hurrying throng;
Never a moment do you have to spare,
Nor a kind word with a brother to share.
Fools at beginning, and fools to the last,
This is the reason you hurry so fast;
Gold is the lure that is driving you, aye,
Gold is the bauble which dazzles the eye.
Stop for a moment, oh, stop then I say,
Think of the things you are losing today;
Love, truth and honor, a home upon high,
These are the jewels that wealth cannot buy.

SIDELIGHTS ON THE CONFERENCE

By NEA Service.
(Washington, Nov. 22—"I must go home! I must go home!"
It was Rene Viviani, huge man with an almost bald and quite gray head. Rene sought the door of his wife's apartment, to tell his troubles.
"Noise! I slept not at all last night—I must go home!" Tramping about like a restless child.
"Poor, dear man—you should have put cotton in your ears." Gently, Rene stopped his tramping. He was thoughtful. His hand rubbed his forehead.
"That is an idea—now I might have done that." His mild blue eyes looked gratefully at his wife.
Viviani's room was changed by the management.
A bushy little gentleman is Artiste Briand, prime minister of France and chief delegate to the conference from that country.
Watchful gray eyes, kind but keen. Heavy brows that knot and bunch when he laughs and are a bit up-slant in repose.
A trick of turning his whole body as he turns his head. Long hands, rather nervous hands which follow his words.
"You keep your rooms so warm," he boomed, "and very lively so you can eat your ices!"
"Oh yes, they're very good." But you amuse me greatly." He was laughing, that good-natured growl. He leaned with his hands beside his knees on the chair. "Freezing cold outside and you sit in your hot rooms eating ices!"
Briand was growling again that genial growl which sets well with his heavy iron-gray hair, his firmly-rippling hand and his absolute self-possession.
Shoes. Just shoes. Shoes tumbling out of bags in Mr. and Mrs. Malkin's apartment. Shoes in neat lines around trunks, bags and boxes in Sir and Lady Chatfield's apartments. Shoes lining the walls in Lord and Lady Lee's apartments. Powerful lot of English shoes came to the conference.
Intense silent, sphinx-like—Admiral Kato. His smile, a rare, whimsical thing, spread slowly over a slim, dark-skinned face and vanishes almost instantly.
Silent, reflective.
His words, low-spoken words, almost musical, come slowly. A voice with little glints of fire under its rhythmic flow.
Composed, tranquil, poised, deliber-
